MATT ARENA

Matthew Knight Arena opened its doors on Jan. 13, 2011, to a sold-out crowd of 12,364 as the Oregon men's basketball christened the new palace with a 68-62 victory over USC. The building, named after the late son of NIKE Co-Founder Phil Knight, is located on the east side of UO's campus.

Officials broke ground on Matthew Knight Arena on Feb. 7, 2009, as the 420,000 square-foot masterpiece was constructed in less than two years. Matt Arena was erected to replace legendary McArthur Court, which opened on January 14, 1927. Known as one of the toughest venues in the country for opponents, Mac Court was the second-oldest on-campus arena still in use before Matthew Knight Arena opened its doors.

Also known as "The Pit," Sporting News named it the "the best gym in America" as sports writer and arena researcher Bill Kintner placed Mac Court his top five of college basketball arenas in America for its history, character, and atmosphere.

Mac Court was a passion incubator. The geometry of the place not only shoved fans close to amplify the intensity of emotion, it put fans on top of the action, making them feel like they were an integral part of the play on the floor, and able to usher their Ducks to victory through the force of their energy and collective will. Fans didn't just go to Mac Court to watch a game; fans went to live it.

To recreate the same passion and experience at Matthew Knight Arena, the new venue was fashioned with the same close connection to the student-athletes and the action; by making the fans feel like they are an integral part of the game.

Matthew Knight Arena is a monument to all Oregon fans and their common love for Oregon, and the exciting energy that happens when all join together to cheer for the Ducks.

MATT ARENA

MATTHEW KNIGHT ARENA

There are several areas throughout the arena, including the club areas, team spaces and concessions that tie the Oregon brand together. Three major displays on the Concourse are the Anthem to the Fan, the Hero Graphics and the Shroud Wall. Each tells different parts of the story. The Shroud Wall is primarily about heritage, energy and progression.

Hero Graphics celebrate Oregon's great student-athletes and great moments--past and present. The Anthem to the Fan is about common devotion. Together, they express the sense of connection and ownership, the unique and proud heritage, the wild passion, and the unrelenting quest for more championships to come. This Land of the Tall Firs is a special place, inhabited by people who care more deeply about a team that fights even harder.

The unique floor design at Matthew Knight Arena is a nod to the Tall Firs, the nickname of Oregon's National Championship basketball squad in 1939. The one of its kind perspective is looking up from a clearing in the forest that celebrates Oregon's beautiful environment.

Kilkenny Floor is a homage to the family of former athletics director Pat Kilkenny. Three logos represent Heppner, Ore., with the Morrow County Courthouse; an interlocking UO with three shamrocks; and the beach/sunset of San Diego. These images honor the hometown of the Kilkenny's, the Irish pride and logo of Oregon during Pat's era as a student, and Pat's love of San Diego where he calls home today.

Matthew Knight Arena rivals Hass Pavilion for the tightest, steepest seating bowl in the Pac-12, and there are unobstructed sightlines to the total playing surface for all seats. The lower bowl of Matt Arena is closer to the floor and steeper than Mac Court. The West Endzone seating is as steep as code allows – over 36 degrees.

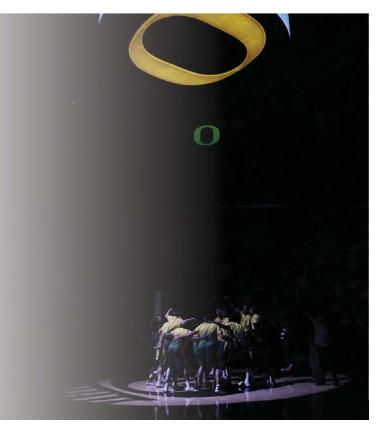

The center hung KnightVision boards are the largest (12'8" high and 18'11" high) and highest resolution (6mm) video boards on a scoreboard in an NCAA arena. Only the recently opened Amway Center (NBA Orlando Magic) has larger screens at this resolution.

In addition, Matt Arena has four hustle boards located at the corners of the seating bowl for game stats and 270 degree LED ribbon boards located at front of upper seating bowl.

There are two regulation-size basketball court and one regulationsize volleyball practice courts.

On the floor level, Matt Arena has spacious on-site athletic training and weight training facilities as well as a nutrition bar.

The men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball team locker rooms and lounges also have state of the art technology for gamedays, practices and studying purposes.

MATTHEW KNIGHT ARENA FACTS

Matthew Knight Arena hopes to be the first LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Gold certified Arena in the NCAA. LEED provides standards to recognize Green buildings. A kiosk explaining Matthew Knight Arena's LEED features is located on the main concourse near the West entrance.

- There are four times as many toilets as in Mac Court with over 130 women's toilets, 65 men's toilets and 4 family toilets.
- The lower bowl of Matthew Knight Arena is closer to the floor and steeper than Mac Court.
- Over 50 Point of Sale lines are available to purchase food and beverage in 20 different locations.
- Over 200 TVs located in the arena and over 100 of these are located throughout the concourses.
- There are four loading dock bays with room underground to turn a 70" truck 360 degrees.
 - The clean span roof trusses are over 260' long.

CONSTRUCTION FACTS

- 1,890 employees worked at the site, each earning a wage during one of the worst economies in Oregon history
- 330,000 cubic yards of dirt were excavated (that's 30,000 dump truck loads)
 - 50,000 cubic yards of rock
- 39,000 cubic yards of concrete were poured in the arena and the garage (that's 3,900 mixers full)
- $\,$ 4,840 tons (over 9 million lbs.) of reinforcing steel was placed in the concrete
 - 580,000 lbs. of precast concrete forms the seating bowl
 - Over 2,900 tons of structural steel were placed
 - Over 800,000 man hours

BASKETBALL FLOOR

- A nod to the Tall Firs, the nickname of Oregon's National Championship Basketball team in the 1939.
- A unique perspective looking up from a clearing in the forest that celebrates Oregon's beautiful environment.
- Deep in the Woods Where opponents will find themselves as they play Oregon in this new arena.
- The Oregon "O" combined with the Matt Arena Logo at center court.

MATT ARENA LOGO

- Unique letter forms spell out "MATT" in a toothy grin reminiscing Matthew Knight as a child.
- A smile, and a Japanese-inspired Torii gate shape, (A Torii gate is a symbol of a sacred place in Japanese culture).
- Curved arena forms that connect the Oregon Graphic Identity with the heroic proportions of the arena architecture.

DANA ALTMAN

HEAD COACH

A 2013 National Coach of the Year selection, Dana Altman is the 19th head coach in the history of the University of Oregon men's basketball program. He is 73-37 in three seasons in Eugene and 483-280 in 24 seasons as a head coach at the NCAA Division I level in stints at Oregon, Creighton, Kansas State and Marshall.

In his first three years at Oregon, Altman has led the Ducks to three consecutive 20-win seasons and three postseason appearances, including the 2013 NCAA Sweet 16. It marks just the third time in school history UO has produced consecutive seasons of 20+ wins. Altman now has 15 seasons of 20+ wins to his credit (11 at Creighton, three at Oregon, one at Kansas State).

Altman's 2012-13 Oregon Ducks became the first UO team since 2008 to qualify for the NCAA Tournament. The Ducks finished the season 28-9 and won the Pac-12 Tournament. Altman was named the Pac-12 Coach of the Year before going on to earn Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year honors. Senior E.J. Singler was an all-league first team selection, while Damyean Dotson claimed a place on the Pac-12 All-Freshman team. Johnathan Loyd was named Most Outstanding Player of the Pac-12 Tournament as the honors were spread around nearly the entire team. Senior Arsalan Kazemi was a Pac-12 all-defensive pick before going on to become a second round draft choice of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers. Singler was a free agent signee by the Portland Trailblazers.

During the 2011-12 season, Altman led the Ducks to a 24-10 overall record and an 13-5 Pac-12 Conference mark which was good for a share of second place in the final league standings. The Ducks earned a bid to the National Invitation Tournament and recorded victories over LSU and lowa before falling at top-seed Washington in the tournament quarterfinals.

Under Altman's tutelage, four UO players were recognized as part of the 2012 Pac-12 All-Conference teams. Devoe Joseph became the first Duck since the 2006-07 season to be named first team all-conference. Singler was named to the all-conference second team and NABC All-District 20 second team, while Garrett Sim earned honorable mention all-league recognition and Tony Woods was named honorable mention all-defensive team.

In his first season at Oregon, Altman led the Ducks to just the 12th season of 20+ victories in the history of the program. He became just the third UO head coach to tally 20+ wins in his first season on the job. Oregon went 21-18 overall and 7-11 in Pac-12 play which earned them a seventh-place finish in the final league standings.

Altman posted the second-highest win total of any first-year UO head coach. Only John Warren (30 wins in 1944-45) posted more in his first year on the sidelines. The 2011 postseason included a pair of wins at the Pacific Life Pac-10 Conference Tournament, highlighted by a 76-59 upset win over No. 2-seed UCLA in the quarterfinals. Oregon participated in the 2011 College Basketball Invitational, defeating Altman's former team – Creighton – in the best-of-three championship series.

Altman arrived at UO after spending 16 seasons at Creighton where he became the school's all-time winningest coach with a record of 327-176 (.650). He led the Blue Jays to 13 consecutive postseason appearances, a stretch of 11 straight seasons with 20-plus wins, all while producing 10 or more league victories in each of the last 14 seasons. Those three feats were unmatched in the 103 years of the Missouri Valley Conference.

He won four Coach-of-the-Year awards from three different conferences in a span of 13 seasons, including back-to-back MVC coaching honors while he was at the Omaha, Neb., educational institution in 2001 and 2002. Altman was a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award and was named the NABC District 12 and USBWA District VI Coach of the Year following the 2002-03 campaign.

Creighton participated in seven NCAA Men's Basketball Tournaments and five National Invitation Tournaments under Altman, advancing to the second round of the NCAA championships in both the 1998-99 and 2001-02 seasons. He led the school to a MVC regular-season title in 2000-01 - its first in 10 years. The Bluejays posted a school-record 29 wins in 2002-03, finishing the season 15th in the Associated Press poll and 23rd in the coaches' voting.

- Altman now has 15 seasons of 20+ wins to his credit (three at Oregon, 11 at Creighton, one at Kansas State).
- Altman led Oregon to 21 wins in his first year on the job (2010-11) a 24-10 record in 2011-12 and a 28-9 mark in 2012-13. He joined Basketball Hall of Famer Howard Hobson as the only coaches in school history to begin their Oregon careers with three 20-win seasons.
- Altman has finished .500 or better in 21 of his 24 seasons as a NCAA Division I head coach.
- Altman has been to the NCAA Tournament nine rimes, including the Sweet 16 in 2013.

Altman finished his career at Creighton ranking third all-time on the MVC list of all-time wins (327), trailing only Basketball Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba (486) and Eddie Hickey (337). In 2007, he was one of 10 coaches named as part of the MVC's All-Centennial Team. His teams claimed shares of three regular-season Missouri Valley Conference championships (including the 2008-09 crown) and six conference post-season tournament titles.

Student-athletes under his direction at CU earned six All-America honors on the court and four Academic All-America laurels in the classroom. Three players he coached at Creighton - Kyle Korver, Rodney Buford and Anthony Tolliver - have played in the NBA.

Along the way, Creighton established school records for most victories in a two-year (52), three-year (76) and four-year span (99). From 1998-99 through 2008-09, Creighton was one of just six schools to win 20 or more games each of those seasons, an elite list that also included Duke, Florida, Gonzaga, Kansas and Syracuse.

In addition, Altman's teams ranked in the top 30 nationally for attendance in his final seven years at Creighton. Altman became the 15th head coach in Creighton history following the 1993-94 season after four successful years as the head coach at Kansas State and a season at Marshall.

Hired by Creighton on March 31, 1994, Altman inherited a team that posted a 7-22 ledger the year before his arrival and led the Bluejays to a slightly improved 7-19 record in 1994-95 before his 1995-96 squad jumped to 14-15. In 1996-97, Altman's team was 15-15 and followed with another substantial jump to 18-10 and a bid to the NIT in 1997-98. Altman compiled a 68-54 record in four seasons (1990-94) at Kansas State University. During that time, Altman led the Wildcats to three straight postseason tourneys and was named the Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year after leading KSU to a 19-11 record and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 1993.

Altman's final Kansas State club turned heads nationally with a 68-64 win at No. 1 Kansas on Jan. 17, 1994. K-State eventually advanced to play in the NIT Final Four. Altman's success at KSU followed him from a brief head coaching stint at Marshall where he was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 1990.

While head coach at Southeast Junior College in Fairbury, Neb., his first team (1982-83) rolled to a 29-6 record and a third-place finish in the junior college national tournament and Altman was honored as both Region 9 and the Nebraska College Coach of the Year.

In 1983, Altman accepted the head coaching position at Moberly (Mo.) Junior College, with a three-year run resulting in a staggering 94-18 record (25-9 in 1983-84; 35-5 with a third-place finish at the national tourney in 1984-85; and a 34-4 mark in 1985-86 with a sixth-place finish at nationals).

He was named Region 16 Coach of the Year in both the 1984-85 and 1985-86 seasons, and was also a finalist for 1986 National Junior College Athletic Association Coach of the Year accolades. Altman's playing career began at Southeast Junior College in 1976, where he captained teams to a 22-10 mark in his freshman year and a 26-5 record in his sophomore season.

Altman completed his undergraduate education and playing career at Eastern New Mexico University. After earning his associate degree in business administration from Southeast in 1978, Altman graduated magna cum laude from Eastern New Mexico in 1980 with his bachelor's degree in the same field.

Altman received his master of business administration degree from Western (Colo.) State in 1981. He served as an assistant coach on the Western State staff from 1980-82.

At Wilber (Neb.) High School, Altman was a two-sport letterman, earning all-conference honors as a quarterback on the football team and as a guard in basketball. Altman was born June 16, 1958, in Crete, Neb. He and his wife, the former Reva Phillips of Stanton, Neb., have three sons, Jordan, Chase and Spencer, and one daughter, Audra.

Stubblefield came to the Ducks after spending four years as an assistant at the University of Cincinnati, serving as the BearCats' recruiting coordinator from 2006-10.

Prior to joining the staff at Cincinnati, Stubblefield served as assistant coach at New Mexico State for six seasons, one of which he served as interim head coach. He was responsible for all aspects of the basketball program at New Mexico State. Prior to the start of the 2004-05 season, he was elevated to interim head coach when Lou Henson's health forced him to miss the season.

BRIAN FISH

ASSISTANT COACH

Brian Fish is entering his fourth season as assistant coach with the University of Oregon men's basketball program. Fish has been a long-time assistant to head coach Dana Altman, having spent 13 seasons under his direction in stints at Oregon, Creighton and Marshall.

Fish has 24 years of coaching experience overall at the NCAA Division I level. Seven programs that Fish has been associated with as either a player or coach have reached the NCAA Tournament. During his eight seasons at Creighton, the Bluejays advanced to postseason play on six occasions.

Fish was a part of two separate Altman staffs at Creighton. He was a member of the first staff from 1994-96, and then returned to the program in the summer of 2004 after coaching a combined eight years at Texas Christian and San Diego.

Fish spent the 2002-03 and 2003-04 seasons at San Diego, helping the Toreros to the 2002-03 NCAA Tournament. Fish was promoted to associate head coach for the 2003-04 campaign.

Prior to San Diego, Fish was on Billy Tubbs' staff at TCU as an assistant coach. At TCU, Fish served as recruiting coordinator and oversaw academics for the basketball team. In his six years at the school, TCU made three postseason appearances and compiled an overall record of 125-68.

Fish and Altman first worked together during the 1989-90 season, when the two were at Marshall. Fish was breaking into coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, while Altman earned Southern Conference Coach of the Year recognition in his lone year with the Thundering Herd.

Two years after Altman went to Kansas State, Fish rejoined his mentor in Manhattan as a video/ film coordinator. Paired together again, Altman and his staff earned 1993 Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year accolades.

When Altman moved to Creighton prior to the 1994-95 season, Fish followed and served in the same capacity for the program. Together, they helped lay the groundwork for Creighton's run of 12 straight postseason appearances.

A native of Seymour, Ind., Fish played two seasons for Clem Haskins at Western Kentucky before transferring to play at Marshall. Fish earned a degree in sport management from Marshall in 1989 before becoming a graduate assistant there.

KEVIN MCKENNA

ASSISTANT COACH

Kevin McKenna is in his fourth season as assistant coach with the Oregon men's basketball program. McKenna spent nine years as an assistant coach under Dana Altman at Creighton University prior to becoming the head coach at Indiana State, where he coached from 2007-10.

McKenna has 24 years of coaching experience, including seven years as a head college coach in stints at both ISU and Nebraska-Omaha.

His 2009-10 Sycamores recorded the program's first winning season since 2001. ISU also reached postseason play for the first time in nine years when it accepted a bid to the 2010 College Basketball Invitational. The Sycamores' success, despite being devastated by injury for the greater portion of the Missouri Valley Conference slate, led McKenna to being tabbed as the MVC Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

The Sycamores finished the 2009-10 season as the nation's No. 2 free throw shooting team. ISU's 76.9 percent mark at the line finished just behind NCAA Tournament qualifier BYU on the Division I list.

At ISU, McKenna mentored Harry Marshall to Second Team All-MVC and MVC's All-Defensive Team recognition. He also helped Jay Tunnell to All-MVC Honorable Mention and MVC Most Improved Team honors. In addition, Jordan Printy and Aaron Carter were tabbed as MVC All-Scholar Athletes under McKenna's watch. He compiled a 43-52 overall record while posting a MVC mark of 24-30 in three seasons at ISU.

In the summer of 2009, McKenna was selected as the head coach of the Athletes In Action college basketball team during a tour of Poland and Germany. He led the team on an 11-day summer tour playing contests in Katowice, Poland as well as Berlin, Germany. The AIA team was comprised of NCAA Division I basketball players.

Before accepting the head coaching position at ISU, McKenna completed nine seasons at Creighton as an assistant coach. During that time the Bluejays went to four NCAA Tournaments as well as two National Invitation Tournaments. McKenna made the first of two stops on the Bluejays' bench from 1994 through 2001, and then returned in 2005.

Before McKenna returned to Creighton, he spent four years across town as head coach at Nebraska-Omaha. He guided the Mavericks to four consecutive 20-win seasons, two North Central Conference titles and three appearances in the NCAA Division II Tournament.

McKenna was named the NCC Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005 as well as North Central Regional Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2005. He finished with an 89-33 mark in his tenure at UNO which included a conference mark of 40-20 (.667).

As a player at Creighton from 1977-81, McKenna led the Bluejays to a MVC regular-season championship, two MVC Tournament titles and a pair of NCAA Tournaments. He was an All-MVC pick and team MVP in each of his final two seasons.

McKenna ended his collegiate career with exactly 1,500 points and was drafted in the fourth round of the 1981 draft by the Los Angeles Lakers. He was a member of the Lakers' 1982 NBA championship team and also played for Indiana, New Jersey and Washington during a six-year NBA career.

He remains the only person in MVC history to win an regular-season title, tournament title, NBA championship and CBA crown.

Following his NBA career, McKenna helped lead the La Crosse Catbirds to the 1989-90 CBA Championship as a player and assistant coach. He then served as the head coach and director of basketball operations for the CBA's Sioux Falls Skyforce from 1990-93. He spent time as a regional scout for the Washington Bullets in 1993-94 before returning to Creighton as an assistant to Altman in 1994.

He earned his bachelor's degree in organizational communications from Creighton in 1993 and added a master's degree in counseling education from his alma mater in 1997. McKenna and his wife, Nancy, have a daughter, Megan, and a son, Bobby.

Singler posted 1,546 points in his four years in Eugene (11th all-time) and also made 168 3-pointers, good enough for a 10th-place tie on Oregon's all-time list. In addition, Singler and his brother, Kyle, who played four years (2007-11) and won a national championship at Duke University, combined for 3,953 points, which ranks 13th all-time in brother scoring combinations (a complete list of the NCAA's all-time scoring leaders for brother combinations is listed below).

OREGON GRABS 12 SEED IN NCAA TOURNAMENT

The Oregon Ducks made their 11th NCAA Tournament appearance in program history on March 21 when they, as a No. 12 seed, defeated the Midwest Regional's No. 5 seed, Oklahoma State, 68-55, at HP Pavilion in San Jose, Calif.

DUCKS NET FIRST WIN SINCE 2007

For the Oregon Ducks, the 2013 NCAA Tournament was the program's first since 2008. The 2008 Ducks earned a No. 9 seed but fell to No. 8 seed Mississippi State, 76-69, in the first round. Before Oregon's 68-55 triumph over Oklahoma State in the Round of 64 on March 21, the Ducks' last victory in the NCAA Tournament came in the 2007 Sweet 16, when they knocked off UNLV to advance to the Elite Eight.

OREGON'S NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Prior to the 2012-13 Ducks, Oregon had made 10 trips to the NCAA Tournament and was a combined 12-9 in those previous appearances. Oregon has won one national championship (1939) and has advanced to the Elite Eight on five occasions (1939, 1945, 1960, 2002, 2007), although there were only eight participating teams in the 1939 and 1945 NCAA Tournaments.

MIDWEST REGIONAL HISTORY

Oregon has been selected to play in the NCAA Tournament's Midwest Regional four times in program history and four times in its last five tournament appearances (2002, 2003, 2007, 2013). After its loss to Louisville in the Midwest Regional Semifinals, Oregon is 8-5 in Midwest Regional tournament games, advancing to the Elite Eight in 2002 and 2007, the Sweet 16 in 2013 and falling in the first round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament.

THREE DUCKS NAMED TO ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

In addition to Johnathan Loyd's Most Outstanding Player award, senior Arsalan Kazemi and freshman Damyean Dotson garnered All-Tournament honors at the 2013 Pac-12 Tournament in Las Vegas, Nev. Dotson averaged 15.7 points per game and hit eight out of his 15 3-point attempts. Kazemi notched a double-double (12 points, 12 rebounds) in the final against No. 21 UCLA and posted 14 poins and nine boards in the quarterfinal victory over Washington.

DUCKS BEAT UCLA TWICE FOR JUST THE SECOND TIME SINCE 2003

Oregon's victory over UCLA in the Pac-12 Tournament title game gave the Ducks their second win over UCLA in a single season for just the second time since 2003. The 2010 Ducks accomplished the feat as well. Oregon has won four-straight games over UCLA, its longest winning streak over the Bruins since it won five consecutive games from 2002-03.

RASK INDUCTED INTO HALL OF HONOR

Prior to the Pac-12 Tournament Championship game, the conference announced its 2013 Hall of Honor inductees. The list of 12 players included former point guard Chuck Rask, who played three seasons for the Ducks (1957-1960) and piloted Oregon to its best NCAA tournament finish since the Tall Firs' National Championship by leading the Ducks to the Regional Finals in 1960. Averaging 12.5 points per game his final year while shooting better than 76 percent from the free throw line, Rask still owns the school's McArthur Court records for most free throws made (18) and attempted (19) in a single game vs. Oregon State. He concluded his career by earning All-Far West Classic, All-Coast and All-America honors following his senior season.

DUCKS TAKE THREE FROM HUSKIES FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 1946

Oregon's overtime triumph over Washington in the Pac-12 quarterfinals gave the Ducks' their third victory over their rivals in the 2012-13 season. It marks the first time since the 1945-46 campaign that Oregon has beaten Washington three times in a single season. Last year, the Huskies took two out of three from the Ducks and ended Oregon's season in the NIT quarterfinals.

Altman has now won Coach of the Year honors in four different conferences – the Pac-12 (Oregon, 2013), Missouri Valley (Creighton, 2001 and 2002), Big Eight (Kansas State, 1993) and Southern (Marshall, 1990). He is the third Oregon coach to receive Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors, joining Dick Harter (1977) and Ernie Kent (2002).

DUCKS FINISH UP OF ONE OF THE PROGRAM'S ALL-TIME GREAT RUNS

The Oregon basketball program won 89 games over the last four years, good enough for fifth place all-time for most wins in a four-year period in school history. In addition, the 73 wins in Oregon's three years under head coach Dana Altman ranks in a second-place tie all-time for a three-year period.

OREGON RECEIVES FIRST-ROUND BYE IN PAC-12 TOURNAMENT

After the tiebreaker scenarios settled, California took the No. 2 seed, Oregon fell to the No. 3 slot and Arizona received the No. 4 seed in the 2013 Pac-12 Tournament.

DUCKS TAKE THIRD SEED YET AGAIN

The Oregon Ducks were the Pac-12 Tournament's third seed for the second-straight year. It is Ducks' best two-year run in highest seeds in program history. Last year, the Ducks lost to No. 6 Colorado, the eventual tournament champions, 63-62 in the quarterfinals. The best seed Oregon has ever received was in 2002, when the Ducks won the Pac-12 regular season and took the No. 1 seed. That year, Oregon dropped an 89-78 decision to No. 4 USC in the tournament semifinals but did advance to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight just a few short weeks later.

OREGON PAC-12 TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Ducks are now 18-12 all-time in Pac-12 Tournament games after their 2013 title. Oregon has won three Pac-12 Tournament titles (2003, 2007, 2013), beating USC in 2003 and 2007 before topping UCLA on March 16. In addition, the Ducks are now 4-2 in first round play, 8-5 in the quarterfinals and 3-5 in semifinal play. The Ducks' three tournament championships are the only years in which they appeared in the finals.

OREGON TIES HOME WIN MARK

The 2012-13 Oregon Ducks won 17 games at Matthew Knight Arena in Eugene this year which tied the school record for single-season home victories (Oregon went 17-3 at home in 2011-12). The Ducks finished the year 17-2 at home and carried a 20-game home court winning streak into February before losing a 48-47 game to Colorado on Feb. 7.

DUCKS' DEFENSE HOLD EIGHT OPPONENTS UNDER 50 POINTS

Oregon's 64-45 win over Utah in the Pac-12 Tournament semifinals marked the eighth time in 2012-13 that the Ducks held an opponent under 50 points during a game. The eight games is the most by a Duck team since the 1982-83 and 1959-60 teams held nine opponents to less than 50 points. Overall, dating back to the 1938-39 National Championship team, the eight sub-50 point efforts by Ducks' opponents ranks 14th all-time and are the second-most in more than 50 years.

ALTMAN LEADS DUCKS TO 20 WINS AGAIN

The 2012-13 Oregon Ducks joined just 13 other Oregon basketball teams in the 108-year history of the program to win at least 20 games in a single season with a 65-52 triumph at Washington on Feb. 13. The Ducks have now won at least 20 games in all three of head coach Dana Altman's seasons at the helm of the program.

ALTMAN WINS 600TH CAREER GAME

Oregon's victory over Stanford on Feb. 23 was Dana Altman's 600th win in his 28-year coaching career. Altman won 123 games at the junior college level and now has 483 wins as a NCAA Division I head coach.

ALTMAN REGISTERS 15TH 20-WIN SEASON

Oregon improved to 20-5 overall with its 65-52 victory at Washington on Feb. 13. The win gave head coach Dana Altman his 15th 20-win season in his NCAA Division I coaching career. He has won 20 games in all three of his years at Oregon as well. Altman's first 20-win season came 19 years ago when his 1993-94 Kansas State Wildcats went 20-14 en route to an NIT berth. From 1998-2009, Altman posted 11 consecutive 20-win seasons as head coach at Creighton, including a 29-5 campaign in 2002-03.

KAZEMI MOVES INTO SECOND PLACE ON OREGON'S ALL-TIME STEALS LIST

Senior Arsalan Kazemi tallied four steals in Oregon's loss to Utah on the final day of the regular season to give him 64 for the 2012-13 season. The four steals moved Kazemi past Kenya Wilkins (61 steals, sixth place), Terrell Brandon, Freddie Jones and Luke Ridnour, who each posted 63 steals during the 1990-91, 2001-02 and 2002-03 seasons, respectively, and are in a fourth-place tie all-time. Singler will go down as one of the most prolific scorers in Duck history; he finished his career with 1,546 career points (11th on Oregon's all-time scoring list). Woods accumulated 91 blocks in his two-year career with the Ducks, which lands him third all-time. In his two years with Oregon, Emory was a force off the bench for Dana Altman. He finished third on the 2012-13 Ducks in scoring, averaging 11.1 points per game. Finally, Kazemi, who transferred to Oregon after playing his first three years at Rice, averaged 9.4 points and 10.0 rebounds per game in 2012-13 and consistently ranked in the top-three in the Pac-12 in rebounding the entire season. FIRST NCAA CHAMPIONS -- THE TALL FIRS

Oregon's 1939 basketball team earned a niche in sports history by winning the first NCAA championship basketball tournament ever held.

With a first unit composed of four native Oregonians and one Washingtonian, Coach Howard Hobson guided the Tall Firs to a 29-5 season record and Oregon's only NCAA basketball title.

The starting five listed three All-Americans in 6-foot 8-inch Urgel 'Slim' Wintermute from Longview. Wash., sharp-shooting Laddie Gale, a 6-4 forward from Oakridge and 5-8 guard Bobby Anet from Astoria. In addition, John Dick, a 6-4 forward from The Dalles, earned All-America honors the following season.

The guard spots were manned by Astorians Anet and 5-11 Wally Johansen. The two had teamed since their grade school days in Astoria.

For reserve strength, Hobson called on the likes of Bob Hardy, Red McNeely, Ford Mullen, Matt Pavalunas, Earl Sandness and Ted Sarpola. Gale, Wintermute, Anet, Johansen and Mullen played on three consecutive Northern Division championship teams.

The Ducks posted a 10-3 non-conference record, highlighted by a two-week Christmas tour that opened in Madison Square Garden with a 38-36 loss to CCNY and concluded with a 50-46 defeat at the hands of Stanford.

In between, however, the Tall Firs won six of seven games giving them a highly respectable 6-3 road mark against some of the nation's finest teams.

Oregon powered to the Northern Division title with a 14-2 record, sweeping four-game series from Idaho and Washington and capturing three of four battles each with Oregon State and Washington State.

That set the stage for a best-of-three playoff with Southern Division champion California at McArthur Court. Before capacity crowds, the Ducks captured the Pacific Coast Conference title in two games. Gale scored 18 points and Wintermute added 11 as the Ducks won the opener, 54-40, and Wintermute and Dick each tallied 16 points in the 53-47 triumph that put Oregon in the NCAA Western Playoffs.

Oregon quickly went to work in the Western Playoffs at Treasure Island, knocking off Texas, 56-41, and dumping Oklahoma, 55-37.

On March 27, the Tall Firs faced Ohio State on the neutral Northwestern University court at Evanston, Ill., for the national title. Dick scored 13 points and Gale and Anet contributed 10 apiece as the Ducks rolled to a 46-33 victory and the NCAA crown.

Huge crowds welcomed them in Portland and Eugene to climax one of the legendary events in the state's athletic history.

MCARTHUR COURT

With over 1,000 games contested within its walls, anyone who played in McArthur Court will testify it's a special place. Picture a triple-decked, classically architectured pavilion. From the outside, you heard the roar of the crowd.

Inside, it was packed to the roof with the deafening cheers of more than 9,000 boisterous fans. Overhead, three balconies vibrated to the sound of Oregon's pep band and rally squad and the scoreboard suspended over midcourt appeared to quiver. The atmosphere was electric.

That's what it was like playing in old McArthur Court, which was better known by players and visitors alike as "The Pit." Opponents cringed at the thought of playing in Mac Court. Fans speak of it with unmatched reverence.

Named after Clifton N. (Pat) McArthur, a student-athlete and the university's first student body president, Mac Court was one of the classic jewels of Oregon's athletic program. Visitors likened the fabled West Coast facility to the old Boston Garden in the east.

McArthur Court was once deemed as a Pac-10 visiting team's least favorite place to play. In 2001, The Sporting News named it the "best gym in America," and in 1995 Sports Illustrated listed it as one of the 12 toughest places in the country to play at the collegiate level. Students sat at courtside and the atmosphere just before the start of a game was tingling.

Oregon's fans are an integral part of the ambience. The Ducks ranked annually near the top of attendance figures in the conference and the setting was the favorite of the many television producers and announcers who covered games at Mac Court. The flavor was easy to capture for their audiences.

McArthur Court was built in 1926, with the first game staged January 14, 1927, when the Oregon men's basketball team beat Willamette 38-10, and has since undergone numerous modifications and upgrades.

The Associated Students of the University of Oregon decided to "tax ourselves to build what we want" and their desires included an indoor arena. McArthur Court was thus paid for out of a $15 fee imposed by the ASUO. During 1932, one of the worst depression years, the mortgage was burned in a public ceremony after the Court had been completely paid for.

The capacity was raised from its original 6,000 seats to 7,600 with a series of additions between 1934-1953 and another expansion in 1955 upped the capacity to 9,100.

Further renovations allowed for as many as 10,063 fans when the upper two balconies were expanded to encircle the arena, but recent alterations to the floor-level seating have dropped the capacity to its final total of 9,087.

Rob Mullens
Director of Athletics
4th Year

Since being named the University of Oregon's 12th director of intercollegiate athletics on July 15, 2010, Rob Mullens has wasted little time in putting his own stamp on the continual success of the Ducks' athletics department while being the beneficiary of one of the most successful eras in school history.

Mullens arrived at Oregon from the University of Kentucky, where he served as deputy director of athletics and managed day-to-day operations for Kentucky's 22-sport athletics department, with an annual operating budget of $79 million.

In his brief tenure in Eugene, he has implemented his philosophy of financial efficiency while overseeing an $93.5 million budget for the coming year, in addition to enhancing the department's model of self-sufficiency.

He has assisted with the continued success of a football program that has been surpassed by few nationally, with the Ducks claiming an unprecedented three straight conference championships while becoming the only school in the country to appear in a third consecutive BCS bowl game following the 2011 season. Following an appearance in the 2011 BCS National Championship Game, Oregon posted a win over Wisconsin in the 2012 Rose Bowl Game.

In fact, 15 of the school's 19 intercollegiate sports advanced to the post season during the 2011-12 season, including women's indoor track & field and acrobatics and tumbling which both claimed national championships. In addition, the Ducks finished 24th in the country in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition as the top program in the country fielding 18 sports or less.

He also was at the helm as the Ducks opened their spectacular Matthew Knight Arena, which plays host to the school's men's and women's basketball teams, women's volleyball and acrobatics and tumbling, in addition to benefitting the entire Eugene-Springfield communities as a state-of-the-art venue for concerts, cultural forums and world-class entertainment.

Off the field, Mullens was just as excited to witness an accumulated graduation rate of 74 percent among all of the Ducks' student-athletes, a single-season best six first-team Capital One Academic All-Americans and 105 academic all-conference honorees.

His background is in accounting and auditing, and he promoted sound fiscal management and self-sufficiency at the University of Kentucky. During his total of eight years at Kentucky, the athletic department's operating budget expanded by nearly 70 percent. Fundraising for the department hit record levels each of the past seven years prior to his departure.

Prior to being named deputy director of athletics at Kentucky in 2006, Mullens began as the university's executive associate director of athletics in 2002. He served at the University of Maryland from 1996 to 2002, starting as assistant director of athletics for business and ultimately as executive senior associate director of athletics and chief of staff.

The West Virginia native was senior athletics business manager at the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1994 to 1996, and prior to that he was an accountant/auditor at Ernst & Young in Raleigh, N.C.

The 43-year-old Mullens earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's in sport management from West Virginia University in 1991 and 1993, respectively. He and his wife, Jane, have two sons - Cooper and Tanner.

Michael Gottfredson
University President
2nd Year

Dr. Michael R. Gottfredson began his tenure as the University of Oregon's 17th president on Aug. 1, 2012.

Previously, he was a professor of Criminology, Law, and Society and of Sociology at the University of California, Irvine, where he also served as the executive vice chancellor and provost since 2000.

Gottfredson holds a Ph.D. and an M.A. from the State University of New York at Albany; and an A.B. from the University of California at Davis

His research and teaching specialties are the causes of crime and delinquency and the criminal justice process. He (with Travis Hirschi) is well known for the development of the self-control theory of crime and delinquency and for the study of how these behaviors relate to age. The theory has stimulated a great deal of research and their description of how and why age relates to crime has become central to research, theory and policy about crime and delinquency. His work on victimization led to the development of the "lifestyle/opportunity" theory of criminal victimization, a prominent explanation for differential risks from crime. His systematic study (with Don Gottfredson) of how arrest, prosecution and sentencing decisions are made in criminal justice contributed to greater understanding of the use of discretion and to the widespread use of structured guidelines in the criminal law.

In addition, he led a major expansion of the UC-Irvine infrastructure, blending state, campus and private support. He helped to create the California Institute for Telecommunications and Technology, including the construction of a $55 million research facility, and the new public law school.

He is the author or editor (with others) of several books, including Control Theories of Crime and Delinquency (2003); Personal Liberty and Community Safety (1995); The Generality of Deviance (1994); A General Theory of Crime (1990); Decision-making in Criminal Justice (1988); Positive Criminology (1987); Policy Guidelines for Bail: An Experiment in Court Reform (1985); Understanding Crime (1980); and Victims of Personal Crime (1978). He has published numerous articles in journals, including Criminology, American Journal of Sociology, American Sociological Review, Advances in Criminological Theory, and various law reviews. He has frequently consulted with state, county, and federal governments concerning criminal justice policy.

He is a Fellow of the American Society of Criminology and was the Andersen Consulting "Professor of the Year" in 1996 at the University of Arizona's College of Business and Public Administration.

Prior to joining UC-Irvine, Gottfredson served in several positions at the University of Arizona from 1985 to 2000, including interim senior vice president for academic affairs and provost, vice provost and vice president of Undergraduate Education. Other academic positions Gottfredson has held include associate professor at The Claremont Graduate School, Claremont, California, from 1983-1985; associate professor of Sociology, University of Illinois, Urbana, from 1981 to 1983; assistant professor at the Graduate School of Criminal Justice, State University of New York at Albany from 1977 to 1979; and director of the Criminal Justice Research Center in Albany, New York, from 1976 to 1979.

He is married to Karol Gottfredson, who was the coordinator of the Intern Teacher Credential Program at UC-Irvine. The Gottfredsons have one daughter, Katherine, a son, Bryan, and daughter-in-law, Meghan, and two young granddaughters.
